Watford City is located in the heart of western North Dakota's premier vacation attractions. 12 miles south is the beautiful Theodore Roosevelt National Park, North Unit which hosts a 14 mile scenic byway drive. The north trailhead of the world-renowned Maah-Daah-Hey Trail is located just across the Little Missouri River just minutes from the national park entrance. 24 miles to the north is a year round fisherman's dream at Tobacco Garden's Resort & Marina. 50 miles to the west explore Fort Union Trading Post and the Confluence of the Missouri and Yellowstone River. 45 miles to the east step back in time at the Three Affiliated Tribes Earth Lodge Village on the banks of beautiful Lake Sakawewa.

Watford City's Long X Visitor Center and Pioneer Museum features regional travel information and North Dakota's largest fossil – it is a great place to start any adventure in McKenzie County.
