DELINQUENT TAX OATH

The 2003 Legislature made a requirement that a person is unqualified to be the highest for property at an annual tax sale if they owe delinquent taxes to any county in North Dakota.

To ensure that only qualified bidders purchase property, all bidders are required to certify that they do not owe any delinquent taxes in North Dakota.

I declare, that by signing below, I hereby certify that under the penalties of perjury, and/or under N.D.C.C. 12.1-11-02, which provides for a Class A misdemeanor for making a false statement in governmental matter, that I do not owe any 2023 and/or prior years of property taxes in any County in North Dakota.
