REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS (RFP)

The McKenzie County Commission requests Proposals for Real Estate Appraisal Services for two County owned properties.

Project Description: McKenzie County recently built a new Public Works Shop which incorporated several separate locations/departments into one centralized location. As such the former McKenzie County Road & Bridge Shop property and McKenzie County Weed Office property are currently vacant and the County has begun proceedings to sell these properties by sealed bid. This RFP is the means for prospective appraisal service providers to submit their qualifications, provide a detailed description of various types of appraisal reports that could be written to address various needs, which includes valuation of existing facilities and property, and to provide their pricing.

Procedure for Submission: Firms wishing to be considered shall submit (7) copies of the qualification materials along with an electronic submittal (jump drive) no later than 4:00pm CST, Friday, March 20, 2020, to the office of:
