PRESS RELEASE – McKENZIE COUNTY FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY PORTAL

McKenzie County is pleased to announce a launch of the financial transparency portal from OpenGov. Financial information from 2013 to present is currently available on the site and new data is uploaded monthly.

From the county home page (county.mckenziecounty.net) click on the button titled “McKenzie County Financial Transparency Portal – Learn about McKenzie County finances.” This will take you to an interactive frequently asked questions page and an introduction to OpenGov.

Learn about McKenzie County finances.

Find out your answers to questions such as:

- How much does the County spend on public safety?
- How does County spending this year compare to last year?
- How much does the County spend on each of its departments?
- What is the County's budget to actual month over month?
- Where does the County's money come from?

We encourage all citizens to explore the site and welcome questions and comments.
